

Wednesday, June 14, 2017

12:00 PM - 2:00 PM

Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies - Rome Building, Auditorium

1619 Massachusetts Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20036

EUROPE: WHAT HAPPENS NOW?

From Brexit and Macron's France to the elections in Germany and Italy: unprecedented challenges between populism, nationalism and a new project of Union.

A conversation with

Enrico Letta

Dean of the Paris School of International Affairs (PSIA) at Sciences Po in Paris, France
Former Prime Minister of Italy (via Skype)

Author of "Contro Venti e Maree: Idee sull'Europa e sull'Italia", Il Mulino

With:

Carlo Cottarelli, International Monetary Fund, Executive Director

Panelists:

Philip Crowther, France 24, Washington DC

Renzo Cianfanelli, Corriere della Sera (via Skype from London, UK)

Moderator:

Antonella Ciancio, La Stampa in English, Washington DC

Q&A will follow

RSVP here

Light refreshments will follow

